Synopsis

This series focuses on the idea that shelter is a basic human need, but in different parts of the world, people live in different types of homes to suit their lifestyle and the resources available. Each book in the series supports this main focus by showcasing homes from around the world. --This text refers to the Library Binding edition.

Customer Reviews

This book is pretty basic, but perfect for our 3rd graders project. Pictures are great and gave enough info for her to understand.
