Customer Reviews

"The Black Americans of Achievement series is such a welcome addition to the body of works on Black American history. Here is a series with extensive illustrations and intelligent writing that makes history fun for young readers." --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Excelent....

With an introduction by Coretta Scott King, this is a well-written life of Ella Fitzgerald that should interest adults as well as the middle-school readers for which it’s intended. The many photographs, almost one per page, should keep teens and preteens moving through the book.
