Customer Reviews

I have every Southern Living Christmas book since 1988, so I feel qualified to write this review. The 2016 offering does not live up to it’s predecessors. The photography looks dated and the decorating ideas are almost non existent. I found some recipes that I think I will like, so it isn’t a total washout. If you are new to this series of holiday books, get an earlier one.

I have purchased the Southern Living Christmas book for many years. They have always provided beautiful inspiration for decorating, wrapping, party ideas and recipes. I always look at them many times to get ideas and gift wrap ideas. This book is an enormous disappointment! While I understand that appealing to the masses with different tastes is difficult, Southern Living readers have a following of a certain style which this book clearly lacks. There is very little inspiration and the book is just very average and I am left VERY disappointed.

I collect this series and look forward to each year!

As always Southern Living amazing my family with this years Christmas book. We have already started planning using the plainning pages in he back and picked out some great recipes to try this year

This year's edition is lovely. The photography is beautiful, and the recipes are a nice mix of both challenging and easy-to-prepare dishes and desserts. I particularly liked the holiday decorating ideas - nice blend of elegant and rustic. The tribute to sweets throughout the years was a nice touch.

Enjoyed another year of celebrating Christmas with the help of this Southern Living publication. Can't wait for the next one.

Love Southern Living Christmas books!

I love the 2016 edition of Southern Living Christmas. I give these as gifts from some family members. This year they arrived quickly giving me ample time to delivery before Christmas.
