Synopsis

Humble and beautiful, Isabelle Sanders sacrifices all to take care of the village orphans, much to her proud motherÃ¢â ¬â„¢s disdain.When the pompous Lord Miles Spencer and his troops parade the street each day, IsabelleÃ¢â ¬â„¢s wards eagerly wave, but the young soldier shows nothing but contempt for the poor urchins Ã¢â ¬â œ until he sees their keeper.Who is this hidden beauty, and why is she wasted on the village rabble?Miles determines to discover her and have her for himself, but Isabelle takes utmost care to hide from his advances.Driven by a growing love, the LordÃ¢â ¬â„¢s heart is warmed and melted as his search continues, until the real Miles Spencer finds more than he bargained for Ã¢â ¬â œ true love and a brand new future.In this original Regency fairytale the classic tale of Cinderella takes a decidedly romantic Regency turn.

Customer Reviews

It was a cute, clean story. Hero falls madly in love with heroine but his family stands in the way. They have to overcome couple obstacles before their HEA. Gave 3 stars because it read like a narrative too much.

I loved it, quick, gentle, and lovely. I could see the characters.I wish it was longer!

This was a short, sweet, and clean story. I like how it played on the Cinderella fairytale but had a different storyline. I look forward to reading more by this author.

I'm really liking this series of book and I'm eagerly awaiting for the next one to come. Please hurry. Thanks

Isabelle Sanders, an orphan herself and living with her aunt and uncle, spends much of her time caring for the mining town's orphans. Her aunt objects to her association with the dirty little thieves, but Isabelle will not be swayed.Miles Spencer sees Isabelle when he and his men pass through the town every day on their way to Court where Miles is in the service of the Regent. Thus begins his search for the elusive Isabelle.

I loved the loved her father had and I couldn't stand her mother .It was wonderful story of a father love for his child. And how he tried to protect his daughter it was a great book I enjoyed it very much. Thanks Charity

A quick read for the romantic in all of us. Clean, not to much heartache, but enough to entirely keep the pages turning. These short books are for those occasions when you don't have a lot of time, to enjoy what time we actually take for just ourselves in this busy world in which we live in.

Not sure why the ratings are so high. Overall the plot seems a bit dopey. And really not a Cinderella story.
