Synopsis

Tears burned behind her lids, and unwilling to let them fall, Dorothy ducked her head, sucking in a needed breath. HeÃ¢â ¬â„¢d apologize for Drew? Especially when Drew had gone out of his way to run her away from him. The comparison stood stark in her mind, LouisÃ¢â ¬â„¢s gentleness against DrewÃ¢â ¬â„¢s anger.-----Spunky Southside Eagle cheerleader, Dorothy Payne, never expected to meet the guy of her dreams on the football field. Especially since he goes to the rival school, Piermont High. But a mid-game collision with RaiderÃ¢â ¬â„¢s defense player, Louis Buntz, soon leads to mutual interest and a date.What seems simple and full of promise, however, has unseen complications: her momÃ¢â ¬â„¢s bad health, LouisÃ¢â ¬â„¢s rocky home life, and, biggest of all, the sudden jealousy of her longtime friend, EaglesÃ¢â ¬â„¢ quarterback, Drew Sault. The rash decision to go out with both further muddles things. Her heart pulls her one way, but her conscience pulls the other. She shouldnÃ¢â ¬â„¢t be with a Raider when it looks like the guy sheÃ¢â ¬â„¢s known the longest is falling apart.Rival teams. A football scandal. A play for her heart. Clean Reads for teens by best-selling author, SUZANNE D. WILLIAMS.

Customer Reviews

Suzanne D Williams is absolutely my favorite author! Her stories are bright, light, and fun to read. They deal with situations that occur in life, and have positive outcomes. This book is no different, and is an interesting perspective. It is an enjoyable read.

Wow! What a great story of how one should practice integrity amongst more than just their friends and parents,etc.A short wonderful story that I would like to recommend for five stars as well as for kids ages 12-18! .I received thisfor free and in return, here now is my honest review. Super job Suzanne D.! By Angela

This story is mainly about integrity and standing up for what is right. It's is about more than that though. It is about leadership. It is about showing others by example. It is about treating people right. It's about not giving up on people. This book is a clean read that could have a major impact. Dorothy makes a poor choice, Drew makes a poor choice, but that does not end up defining who they are deep down. I was given a copy of this book for my honest review.
