Ã¢â ¬Å“Lots of great gems for men here: about understanding (and improving) their own dating patterns, about how to screen potential partners for likely trouble and how to be happy in a relationship. Dr. Smith knows what heÃ¢â ¬â„¢s talking about, using a wide range of helpful case examplesÃ¢â ¬â •of failure and successÃ¢â ¬â •in this very encouraging book.Ã¢â ¬Â•Ã¢â ¬â •Bill Eddy, lead author of Splitting: Protecting Yourself While Divorcing Someone with Borderline or Narcissistic Personality and co-author of Dating Radar

I was able to read an early draft of this book written by psychologist Shawn Smith. I had been waiting for a book like this to come along that offered some advice on what to actually look for when screening for a long term partner. Of course, personal tastes vary, but advice like "you will just know when she comes along" has never been particularly helpful to me. Dr. Smith outlines several essential qualities to look for, and several traits to avoid when thinking about settling down. This book cuts through a lot of relativism and misinformation and provides every guy with a safety plan for love.
