FLEXIBOUND VERSION. Shipped from the UK, arrived within timeline given. High Quality, Heavy Slick Paperback. The Flexi-bound, was a lower cost, shipping cost was the same, as if it had been shipped from US.The thing I like about the FLEXIBOUND IS that it can be coaxed to lay flat open. This works great for me, as I usually use 2 books (normally a Rick Steves or Baedekers) along with the DK's) and the fact it lays flat, is helpful for comparing and research I do in advance of a trip. Overall, I like the DK Eyewitness Guides for their Beautiful Color Photos / Illustrations. For me, photos/illustrations give me an instant knowledge, of YES, I DO WANT TO SEE THIS. Using 2 books gives me a broader range of info to choose from. Some sites are listed in one, and not the other. I don’t want to miss anything, and regret that I missed it, because I was only doing research in 1 Book. For Me, 2 is better. 40 trips to Europe so far, this works for us, as we always travel totally independently... We do not take Tours, except for the occasional day tour, usually somewhere outside the cities we are visiting, or

The DK Eyewitness Travel Guides are my absolute favorite out of all the different travel guides on the market. They feature more photos than the other popular travel series books which comes in handy when you are in a foreign city, like Prague and trying to find all of the locations on your sightseeing list. In addition to the helpful information about the important places to visit in the city, the book also provides practical information about the country for foreign travelers. A must-have if you are visiting Prague for the first time.

Another great and comprehensive guidebook from a great series of travel books. Never real easy to use on the go, but great introductory material before your trip and while relaxing at a park, monument or hotel before you head out for the day.

This is an excellent guide. I especially like the many pictures that help you recognize a place when you see it. Full of good advice and maps, too.

We’re looking forward to touring with this book in hand. Looks excellent.

DK Eyewitness is my favorite travel guide. I have these guidebooks for Rome, Paris, Venice & the Veneto, Prague. Practical information is accurate and map in the back is handy. I also use online guides, but the book is so well organized and the ideas with pictures for walks around town work well for me.

Dense with information. Sure, some of this you can find online, but DK is reputable and provides objective insights. There’s a section providing tips for travelers, specific to Prague; particularly helpful if you have no or little experience traveling abroad. Comes with high quality (ie water resistant) map. Will make a helpful travel companion.

Great guide book as are all Eyewitness Travel books. You can’t miss with this name brand.
