Synopsis

"I never travel without my diary. One should always have something sensational to read in the train." -- Oscar Wilde A Book Lover's Diary is a journal for noting personal discoveries from the books read and recording the books on a wish list. A Book Lover's Diary is a welcome companion during forays to libraries and bookstores when the titles of books wanted can vanish from memory. Well-organized and practical, this book features separate sections for: Books to read Books read and a personal review Books to buy Books loaned out or borrowed Favorite books Memorable passages Addresses of libraries and book stores Beautifully detailed woodcuts illustrate the pages and quotations describe the joy of books and reading. By keeping track of the books read and noting their effect, this journal becomes a valuable personal history.

"I never travel without my diary. One should always have something sensational to read in the train."

Shelagh Wallace is the author of The TV Book.

I bought this for my mom. She is an avid reader, but is old school and refuses to switch to a Kindle. I wanted to give her something that made keeping track of what she has read easy and this journal is structured well in that regard. She seems to like it and now, instead of putting post-it notes on the front of the books with the information, she is able to keep the details all in once place.

I am somewhat disappointed with this diary. it is rather disjointed, and sections of items such as "books I've loaned out," are just kinda helter-skelter. There is not enough pages to really keep track of books for a avid reader, and is quite small.

When I got this book in the mail, I was really excited because I wante it to serve as place for me to keep track of the books I've been reading lately. The pictures, words, and quotes are beautiful. I love the size of the book. Some of the sections are a bit redundant though. Also I have no need to list books I want to read by subject, so I feel that that particular section is irrelevant. I was also hoping there would be more room for me to write a review about the book. Two lines is not sufficient enough, in my opinion. I also feel that only four pages isn't enough to write down favorite quotes from the books I've read. Overall the book serves its purpose of keeping tracks of the books I've read, I just wish they would've gotten rid of the redundant sections and replaced them with more ro for reviews of each book and quotes.

I was SO-O-O-O happy to find a book like this; had been looking for years. Someone suggested I check .com and there it was!! This book provides an easy way to keep track of what you have read and your rating of each book you've read, keeps track of the books you want to purchase, tracks books you loan out, etc. Suggest some of the pages be completed in pencil. The only reason I didn't give the book 5 starts is because I felt that some sections needed more pages for those of us who are avid readers. I would buy it again in a heart beat, especially as a gift for avid book lovers.

My sister ordered this book for me for my birthday. I was so excited when I opened the package and found the wonderful pages to document my reading, copy favorite quotes, list books I loved as a child (and still do), keep track of books I want to read, and more. This simple organizer is lovely! It has numerous wonderful quotes about books and reading from various sources. I took several evenings to browse through it thoroughly. I still enjoy just looking at it. The paper is of a very high quality. The colors are minimal to prevent competition with the reader's entries. If you love reading, get your hands on this little gem to store all your favorite memories of books!

I bought this book because I love to read, and it seemed that this would be a nice adjunct for me. The book is even better than I had anticipated; it has everything a reader could want! I shared this with my neighbor who is in a book club, she bought one for everyone in the group! I would recommend this to all who love books. This book would be appreciated by all age groups. I am buying more for stocking stuffers for my children and grandchildren as well as my book loving friends.

I love the cover - it's was caught my eye. I was looking for a journal that only has pages to review books I have read. This has several sections, such as books borrowed/leant and want to read that I will never use.

Exactly what I wanted. The info that I need in 5 lines. If you are of those who likes to write a summary of the book or special notes about it this is not for you. But for me works JUST PERFECT.
