As a 20+ year travel veteran, I can say this is one of the worst travel books I've ever bought. Time after time I was shocked at how limited the information was in this book for everything we saw and did. The thinnest of descriptions, whether a major historical or cultural site. And the maps are practically useless. Fodor's really needs to up its game before I'll buy another of its guides.

Very helpful information and details for the 2 main cities. More directional information for the coastal areas...wish there was a little more detail for those destinations.

great and insightful book, shipping was so slow I should have ordered the kindle version. definitely not worth the shipping cost

Good read with solid ideas for our vacation.

Lots of handy hints
