Michael Robin is a writer, librarian, super hero fanatic, and father of 3 boys. All of the illustrations come from DC’s classic super hero collection.

My super-hero-obsessed, starting to read pre-schooler LOVES this book, as I’d hoped. We use a bookmark and read a couple of letters worth of pages each night, and come back the next night for more. The pictures and arrows and selection of words are great for beginning readers. Sometimes he brings it in the car and I can hear him in the back looking and reading to himself. Fun way to practice sight words.

This is the perfect first dictionary for any child that loves superheroes. The colors are vibrant and everything connects/makes sense.

Very cool, great for kids of comic fans!

This book made my little guy very happy. It is jam packed with colorful pictures and definitions. It would make a great gift for any young super hero fan (boy or girl).

My nephew love it.

Funny and adorable. Adults can enjoy reading this with their kids.

It’s a really great way to get my batman obsessed kid to focus on learning new words

Great book, comprehensive, colorful and fun! A great find for your kid or comic lover
