Merriam-Webster, Incorporated is America's oldest and most respected publisher of dictionaries and other language reference products. Our staff of full-time lexicographers is the largest in America and our database of more than 16.5 million examples of words used in context is the most extensive in the world. With more than 170 years of accumulated knowledge and expertise this distinguished company represents a tradition that dates back to Noah Webster.

This dictionary has only 40000 words - half or less than that of most good dictionaries. This means that it does not have quite a few words that you might need to translate.

teacher recommended

This dictionary is handy for it's size, but for the student of French Language , there are many words not included. So it is also not as handy as it could be for translating books etc from French to English. The semi- Thesaurus style included with the translation of each word is very helpful, though

This is a really good dictionary. It gives the word, meaning and various uses, so it is very helpful. It tells you what part of speech it is as well, nouns in French if male or female , verbs transitive or intransitive.

The product was in the condition described, and it was exactly what I was needing! It'll really help with my French classes...

I bought this for my son as required by his French III class. It is useful. Although he goes on line for translations when at home, this book is useful for him when he does his homework away from the house or in the classroom.

I purchased this before I found the LaRousse version. It's light enough to tote around, but not detailed enough for studying.

This dictionary has been very useful for me, especially because I'm learning French for the first time and English is not my first language. I have not had any problem finding any of the words. One of the best things about this dictionary is that it uses IPA, and it was helped me a lot with my pronunciation of the language. I am very satisfied with my purchase and can not believe I didn't do it sooner!
