Synopsis

"FLAT" is a modern day musical guide dedicated to raising the bar of excellence in music while serving in ministry. This powerful book reveals revolutionary concepts that challenges the standard of music in church today. With controversial topics like "Why The World Offers More Than The Church" and "The Risk of Dating Women In The Church You Play For", Jonathan L. Brown deals with the dysfunctional system of music in church today. Everything in the world evolves over time except the church. Today's Millennials are fast thinking digitally technical individuals whose frustration often time stems from antiquated leadership models. With over 25 years of musical experience in ministry, Jonathan L. Brown will challenge every traditional belief you have about music and ministry in this book. Music often fails in church due to the lack of understanding from leadership and the disrespect from musicians towards them because of it. This JBrowniePoint book serves as a solid bridge between pastors and musicians for Kingdom development in music.

Customer Reviews

This book was very insightful! More importantly I appreciate the unbias within this book. I will say there were a few grammatical errors but nothing beyond comprehension. This was a great read.
