Customer Reviews

These cards aren’t laminated in any way so they can get damaged. However, I don’t mind that. I actually love these cards, because the questions are helpful on the go. The explanations on the back really help break down how to get to the answer. It explains how you would omit some of the questions and gets you thinking in the NCLEX mentality. I really recommend these!

Used to prepare myself for the NCLEX and I focused and remained discipline and study 75+ questions everyday until I took my test. I passed at 75!Now that I am a Clinical Instructor I use them to help my students. Excellent buy,well worth it.

When it comes to preparing for NCLEX, no one tops Saunders. I receive mines this past Monday, and it is OMG!! awesome!!!. I read some of the reviews and one them was that the cards are flimsy and the other is about the fonts too small. I found both of these comments to be WRONG. There are people in this world that are just hard to please, and it has nothing to do with quality or taste. I am a nursing student graduating in December and I am so glad I bought these review flash cards from Saunders. I wear prescription glasses all the time, and I was able to read each card with and without my glasses. The cards are perfectly made, with Nclex style questions on all seven topics covered in nursing. My money is well spent on these cards. Don’t let any negative review(s) change your mind, buy it and see for yourself. I am glad I did.

Do NOT buy online option. It comes more like a book with questions on pages rather than flashcards. Wish I would have bought the regular flashcards... definitely a disappointment.

GREAT way to review for the NCLEX and these are especially nice because you can throw them in your pocket without lugging an entire book around.

Bought these for my sister who had just graduated nursing school (in May). with the hopes she could use these as a studying aid before sitting for the exam in July. My sister took a NCLEX course and these to study. She was able to stuff them in her apron when waitressing and reviewed the cards during down time. She said these were well worth the purchase, as she passed the exam first time!!!

Thanks!!

I took the RN boards two times and failed after being an LPN for about two years. I ordered these and used them with other study materials and passed! I love them!
