PreS-Gr 1Ã¢â ¬â •Pete the Cat is yet again inspiring sing-alongs, this time on Old MacDonald's farm. The book goes through the song with 17 different animals, each one keeping strictly to the familiar lyrics with no other textual additions. Each verse is accompanied by a spread illustration of that animal and Pete, either holding a guitar or driving a truck or tractor. The book has the repetition that readers have come to expect, but it is not original; it's simply an Old MacDonald picture book with illustrations featuring Pete the Cat. Those expecting the catchy original songs found in the first three "Pete the Cat" titles (HarperCollins) will be disappointed. However, for libraries that cannot keep enough Pete books on the shelves, this will do.Ã¢â ¬â •Emily E. Lazio, The Smithtown Special Library District, NY

Everyone’s favorite groovy cat is groovier than ever in this way-cool adaptation of "Old MacDonald Had a Farm"!

My 6 year old granddaughter loves the Pet the Cat books. We have a large library of them now. They have big words and colorful pictures throughout the whole book. She loves to read them to me. Pete is so cute and since we love cats and have 5 of them between us, we love all Pete’s adventures. Wonderful books for children of all ages and great in helping little pre-school children to read.

This book doesn’t read much like a traditional Pete the cat book; no catchy phrases and very little singing incorporated into the story line.

Not worth it.... The book is just the song... My two year old loves Pete and tractors, so I thought Pete on a farm would be a nice story for him... This was a waste of money. A big disappointment!

Too long. Should have left out several animals.

Its a cute book. We have another pete the cat book and love it (Pete and his New shoes) but this one follows the song "old McDonald song and nothing more". I was expecting something more along the lines of the fun quirkiness of the Pete’s new Shoes book. It is also very LONG. It is the longes song book I have ever read. Still cute, but not our favorite.

These are great books for engaging children to read. You’re surely able to find a topic to gain their interest.

This is literally just the Old McDonald song. Nothing new or catchy. My son does seem to like it though.

Got this book because my one-year old loves "Pete the Cat and the Wheels on the Bus". She loves this farm book too.
