Jan 1 2017. Tonight we say goodbye. That’s all I’ve learned so far. Purchased this calendar to help me with my Spanish and I can’t wait to get started! I’ve been staring at this thing for a week and I’m ready to rip off Jan 1 and move on to Jan 2!The stand is sturdy, and the paper is sufficient. I like that it gives a little geography/history lesson every month or so.So in closing, esta noche nos despedimos!

Second year that we have used this calendar is great for our family as we are learning Spanish as family and hope to move to a foreign country in the future. Great for conversation starting and pronunciation. Will continue to purchase each year!

This is not what I expected it to be. The sayings in here are totally random, and there aren't many phrases that you would really say. I was hoping for more common sayings other than "and we fight for human rights"

I'm a long-time fan of Living Language page-a-day calendars. Still, this calendar frustrated the recipient--a beginning Spanish learner--who felt the phrases were too advanced for his abilities. I re-gifted the calendar to a more experienced Spanish language learner.

I thought the Spanish phrases would be easier. It's too advanced for a beginning learner.

This is great little calendar. I thought it would be more of a one word thing. The phrases are a bit of a mouthful everyday. I almost need to take the page with me to repeat the phrase everyday. It's nice though. There don't seem to be a lot of calendars like this and you can tell it has been very thought out. Just a little more of a commitment than I was looking for each day.

Great learning experience

I use one every year.
