I am very thankful for this book! Yes, I like it very much. I have learned about the different social media strategies. We all know that social media is the cheapest and most popular way to market your product. IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ve learned a great strategy on how to conduct this kind of marketing: SMART! This is clearly emphasized in the earlier chapters of the book. In this book you will understand how to SMARTLy use the social media. I like how this book was able to guide me on how to use the social media. I am sticking with ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“facebookÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â• as of the moment since this is the most familiar ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“territoryÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â• for me. I think I still have to master or at least know my around on other social media platforms. But at least I now have an idea on how I should manage and implement strategies in the online market.

I have been doing social media management for about three years and given the emergence of the field, I have learned most of my skills by trial and error and by studying what others do. As a marketing professional who deals with traditional advertising media, I have not been able to delve into the whole spectrum of social media platforms, limiting my focus to Facebook and Twitter. Thus I have been feeling a strong need for a good source of relevant information.I've attended some social media marketing seminars but practically all of them have been extremely superficial and seemed like I was throwing away money in enrollment fees.So, I downloaded several books on the subject and after an initial disappointment with a book by another author I came upon Michael Richard's book and was extremely satisfied with it. Finally I found a very comprehensive book that not only describes in detail every social media platform out in the web but also provides plenty of tips and tricks to get the most out of each and every one. This is definitely a very useful reference for the marketing professional whether you are an experienced marketer or advertiser looking to further your social media skills or are taking your first steps in the field and need guidance to succeed. Excellent!
