Six construction trucks gather at a sandy site, ready to start their work. The dozer shoves the sand aside, while the digger bites into the ground. The loader lifts rocks and crashes them (Ka-boom!) into the back of the dump truck, which zooms away. The big mixer chugs away, and the craneÃ¢â ¬â„¢s long arm swivels to move a beam. After close-up views of the individual trucks at work, a wider view shows the sandbox where five children are operating them. ItÃ¢â ¬â„¢s not an entirely novel concept to older fans of truck books, but chances are it will surprise younger kids. A Ã¢â ¬Å“Step 1Ã¢â ¬Â• selection from the Step into Reading series, this simple story is written in rhyme, ending with Ã¢â ¬Å“JobÃ¢â ¬â„¢s all done. / Play is, too. / Engines off now. / Good work, crew!Ã¢â ¬Â• A good short book to keep in mind for toddlers who love trucks as well as truck lovers who are ready to read. Preschool-Grade 1. --Carolyn Phelan
