Customer Reviews

Very nice product. Helpful to get my son to engage in learning phonics. He thinks it is a blast.

Great set of books to help with reading. M son enjoys the pictures and loves to read them everyday. Before getting these books he struggled some, but now he's just zooming through it.

I bought these for my 3.5yo son who is always on the go. The books are short enough that it kept his attention and he even asked for another. I immediately looked for more and found a Paw Patrol set which I promptly ordered it! They are just right for beginning readers and for those little ones with short attention spans.

.They are a lot smaller then I expected but my son loves blaze so they are alright

I bought this set as a gift and the little boy loved them. He is only two so his parents will have to read them to him but he is all about Blaze at the moment. I like buying toys that will help children grow and learn so I am all about books and reading and educational toys.

My son loves Blaze so these were a nice find. Some of the words, especially the names of the trucks, are a little difficult. Since my son is familiar with the show, he can usually figure out the names, so I would suggest your child be familiar with the show first.

These are so great! They're easy to read and the perfect size for little hands. Also, I love the sitewords on the very front page.

Cute books and they really help my son who's young but wanting to read books by himself.
