Must Read

Just great. A great book. Just so great. Just so great. I'm not being sarcastic. This is now 20 words.

This is such a fun series. Pretty much a battle volume from start to finish but many other things are also going on. We start with training and eventually get to a head-to-head with Class 1A vs Class 1B. While they are out in the forest the Legion of Villains arrives with a hit list to follow. There are a whole bunch of great looking villains in this volume. While the book finishes off with a battle of good vs evil there is also, throughout, a sweet story going on in the background. Midoriya finds a little boy hanging out by himself who has a hatred of all Quirks. Midoriya finds out his parents were superheroes killed by a villain and sets out to help the boy overcome his aversion to Quirks, wholly recognising his own young self reflected in the little boy. Funny and action-packed.

I like the way the story is going. A good read. I can't wait o see it animated.

It continues to excite, you literally can't put it down until you finish it(well you can, but why?). Then you want the next manga to come out the next day to see what happens next. Great artwork like usual with great story telling.

The story gets better with every passing chapter. I love this series and plan on buying ever volume that comes out.

Awesome stuff
