In last year's Speak Art (D.A.P., 1997), Sussler, the cofounder, publisher, and editor-in-chief of Bomb Magazine, offered a compilation of interviews with artists culled from the magazine. This year, she collects 24 interviews with authors and poets conducted over the past ten years. The diversity of the writers selected, from bell hooks and James Merrill to John Edgar Wideman, Tobias Wolff, Russell Banks, and Sapphire, matches the distinct talents of the interviewers. Here, writers talk with other writers about life, art, culture, and creativity. Thought-provoking and illuminating answers meet intelligent and challenging questions, while extensive biographical notes fill in the missing pieces. Awesome, inspiring reading for the beginning writer and stimulating reading for the literati; recommended for all libraries.?Denise S. Sticha, Seton Hill Coll.
