Customer Reviews

Purchased to cheer up my mother, who loves Winnie the Pooh. She uses them on letters and any mail she sends. Good selection and the stickers are nice

My 2 year old loves his Cars Ultimate sticker book, which has fun activities (i.e. matching) and scenes he can put the stickers on. I bought a few other Disney sticker books, thinking they'd be similar. This one is not. It is simply a book of stickers. The only activity is to match the sticker to its shape on another page. Though the stickers are nice, it's just rather boring. I was expecting a lot more for the price.

nice activity book for the young ones

A great activity for a young child.

Great for kids age 2 to 5. The stickers are reusable.

I guess at $6.99 I wouldn't call it a rip-off, but it was a rip-off. There are only three'ish pages to put stickers on (depending on how you count them. 5 if you want to count a double page as 2.) The stickers are not sorted or marked to pages, so you have to take all the stickers out and look at all the pages as a universal group to try to do a single match. Fine for older kids, not for younger kids. But younger kids are the target audience of something like a sticker book, no? So absolutely no thought put into the book whatsoever.Not worth more than a buck or two. Not particularly reusable. At its best, doesn't occupy longer than 20 minutes, and, as I said, since the pages and stickers aren't correlated together, you'll have to supervise the entire project for the little ones, so it doesn't work as a project to keep little hands happy and busy while you do something else.

Kid loves it so I love it.

Cute book with all the movie and animated characters. Included interesting facts and lots of stickers too.
