Paula Harrison began inventing stories and writing them down as a child, including one about a magical land inhabited by talking bookworms. She lives with her husband and two children in England.

My daughter loves these books. I bought this for her because she has the whole series except 2 of these. She was so excited to read it and finished it in 2 days. It’s perfect for a late 1st grader who loves to read or 2nd grader. I taught both and this book is about a level K.

Great book for my 2nd grader. The stories are interesting and include a great group of strong female friends who support each other and help those around them.

Thus book was a Great book. I loved the incorporation of the real problem with snow leopards. All through the book, I used my imagination of defeating the evil men. I thought the book is great to incorporate different "kingdoms". Examples are China, Tibet, Brazil, Australia, Africa, the Caribbean and more

My 8YR old says.... "It was Unique and exciting. I love that the Princesses rescue animals.Someday I want to rescue animals."

Very good book for young girls Grand daughter has a complete set now

My daughter, age 7, absolutely loves these books! She reads a couple chapters each night in bed with a booklight and this is one of her favorite series!!

Good reading for a 9 year old

I have an 8 and a 7 year old who really like these books. They are a bit on the lower side of their reading level but they like the stories. My 8 year old can read 2 of these a day.
