Guide book to the Vatican.

I purchased this guide book, which is published by the Vatican Museums and normally available only at its own bookstore (and apparently not online), for an upcoming trip to Rome. I like to guide myself as much as possible, so I can move at my own (slow) pace.This guide is comes complete with everything a visitor could want: a map of the layout of the museums, short and long itineraries, and incredibly detailed and engaging descriptions of each of the galleries and the items they hold.I was pleasantly surprised to find that the guide also has a similarly detailed guide to St. Peter's Basilica as well, including the necropolis underneath with the tomb of St. Peter. There is also a good map of the entire Vatican city-state as well.Everyone who wants to make the most of their visit to both the Vatican Museums and St. Peter's Basilica should buy this guide from one of the sellers here on so they can prepare well in advance.

Great guide to the Vatican! I was able to research what I definitely HAD to see while there. Went to the Vatican very prepared.

It is a great guide when it comes to the logistic side of things but I thought there could be more pictures and explanation on some important works at the museum. Nevertheless, if you want to know about the layout and where things are, this is a fantastic guidebook.

High quality book. Detailed information on Vatican exhibitsand rooms. Arrived within a few days of ordering.
