Synopsis

Short excerpt: At eleven, the moon was risen, and the grim passenger, Paul Revere, had ridden up the Neck, encountered a foe, who opposed his ride into the country, and, after a brief delay, rode on, leaving a British officer lying in a clay pit. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Customer Reviews

Purchased this book for my daughter so she would have her own at home for use while doing homework and not have to carry all those heavy books in her back pack to and from school. When the school year is over we will pass it along to another student :)
