Synopsis

Most people attach snowboards to their feet, a few attach them to their souls. One of the few is 13 year old Kyle Swanson, a boy who is passionate about snowboarding. Set in a NW resort town where snowboarders rule, Kyle has grown up with the dream of riding like a pro. Opening day at Powder Point reveals new opportunities for Kyle when he finds he is old enough to join the Central Cascade Snowboarding competition team. Kyle is the youngest on the team and worries his skills are far below the level of his teammates and they will bump him from the team. In an effort to succeed, Kyle takes to the slopes with his buddies as they carve, jump and spin through the terrain park and halfpipe. Much to his surprise, Justin, who is a natural at snowboarding, picks Kyle for a buddy on a training day. Is it because Justin really wants to help Kyle or because he has a crush on Brooke, Kyle's sister?
