Customer Reviews

"The updated format is brightened by added color illustrations... The text is very readable...library media centers...will want to order them...Recommended."

Series introduction author Chuck D redefined rap music and hip-hop culture as leader and cofounder of legendary rap group Public Enemy. His music addressed weighty issues about race, rage, and inequality with a jolting combination of intelligence and eloquence rarely heard before. A musician, writer, radio host, television personality, college lecturer, and activist, Chuck D is also the creator of Rapstation.com, a multiformat online resource for the global hip-hop community.

Excellent provided; arrived promptly.

it’s no delayed. my brother need so cool product, good memory. Quality product, thick enough not to bend with a solid, comfortable grip. Couldn’t ask for a better product for the price. Nice and valuable.
