Customer Reviews

I am a "fan" of the Lonely Planet series of language books. I like the formats used in the series, and I think that the writers and editors do a great job in providing readers with phrasebooks that encompass a good amount of practical situations where a clear, concise group of both individual words and associated full sentences using those words would be needed. The added notes on customs and history of the country and culture in which the language forms a key element of daily life are very appropriate and useful for readers. This edition of Lonely Planet Hebrew Phrasebook & Dictionary continues the great work of this series. I would recommend this phrasebook .for multiple purposes: travelers can use it, as well as language students taking a primary course in conversational Hebrew.
