In 2000, Teach for America alumnus and Yale graduate Zeke Vanderhoek had a radical idea: students learn better from better teachers. His vision of what test prep could be if written and taught by great educators led him to start Manhattan Prep. Since we began, Manhattan Prep has grown from a boutique tutoring company to one of the worldÃ¢â ¬â„¢s leading test prep providers, offering GMAT, GRE, LSAT, ACT, and SAT courses and tutoring worldwide.We believe test prep should be real education. From our instructors to our materials, we work to teach you the skills youÃ¢â ¬â„¢ll need to succeed on the test, in school, and beyond.

Wow! I was testing in the mid-160 range in my practice tests before buying this book. Within two days of working on the book a few hours a day I see an incredible amount of improvement in the speed and ease at which I complete the logic games. I have full confidence that by the end of this book I will be acing the Logic Games section fairly easily. You can spend thousands on an in-person course, but if you are able to make yourself set time aside to study this book you will be more than pleased with how simple they lay out their methods. I will definitely be ordering the other 3 books, and for this price is an incredible deal considering a higher LSAT score can save you tens of thousands in tuition.

I can’t emphasize how much this book helped me. I read the PowerScore Logic Games bible but didn’t make as much progress as I had wanted, so I decided to give this book a go. SO much better, and so much cheaper. The explanations are clear, the strategies are great, and there are a ton of drills along the way to make sure you fully understand every step of every process. Every person who plans to take the LSAT should read this book, especially since the kindle version is only $9.99.
