Stan and Jan Berenstain introduced the first Berenstain Bear books in 1962. Mike Berenstain grew up watching his parents work together to write about and draw these lovable bears. Eventually he started drawing and writing about them too.Ã Â Though Stan died in 2005, and Jan in 2012, Mike continues to create the delightful Bear adventures from his studio in Pennsylvania, in an area that looks much like the sunny dirt road deep in Bear Country.

How great to have the I Can Read books for my kids that teach biblical values. I always loved these bears as a kid. I am glad they still make these books.

I am very happy with this purchase, I used it for a lesson with my Sunday school students and it was very well received. The book came in a quick time span and was in great condition.

Enjoy the Berenstain Bear books, always have a lesson and children learn from them which is really a good thing.

"Share your food with hungry people. Provide homeless people with a place to stay." - Isaiah 58:7Learning to help those in lesser situations is valuable to children. This Living Lights Good Deed Scouts is great to share a lesson on helping the homeless. A fun read and would even work well for Halloween or camping or anytime with ghost stories. Things are not always what they seem and the hardest part is getting past the surface.Thanks to Zondervan for providing a copy for review.
