Sof?a L?pez-Ibor has taught music for 29 years. She studied Music Pedagogy in Madrid, Spain and at the Orff Institute in Salzburg, Austria. Since 1996, she has been teaching children between three years old and eighth grade at The San Francisco School. She regularly teaches Orff teacher-training courses, presenting workshops in over 28 countries world-wide.Sof

I saw our music teacher with this book and wanted one for myself to use in our elementary art classses. It is a wonderful Arts Integration book.

This is one of the most beautiful instructional books I have ever read. The author is clearly a person who truly loves children. Through her appreciation for the arts and her understanding of how children learn best she helps bring out the artist in each one of them. Looking at the pictures made me realize how lucky these children are to be with someone who encourages them to express their unique personalities and talents.I am a music teacher, a mother and grandmother and I am very inspired by this work.

One of the most fantastic teaching resources out there. I use this book all the time!

This book is a must-buy for music teachers or general elementary teachers interested in developing integrated, multi-disciplinary arts lessons. Filled with beautiful, full color images of children's art work you will return to this text again and again for inspiration.

Wonderful book integrating arts in the classroom!
