Customer Reviews

Basically, this book (as delivered) is unusable.I ordered this piano accompaniment book (to go with Cello part) back in May in anticipation of using it over the summer. Of course I did not immediately check the product in detail because why would I be suspicious? Only now, 2 months later (and of course 1 month past the return window), I was about to use it and realize that the booklet is a complete misprint:The score correctly starts with the Largo of Vivaldi’s Sonata in E minor on page 3, and the beginning of the Allegro on page 4. However, from page 5 onward, these are completely different pieces (unidentifiable for lack of titles): The soloist part is not even in bass clef! (and it’s a piece that switches from 9/8 to 7/8 to 2/4 to 8/8 to 5/8 to 8/8 .... time from one measure to the next...)See the photo as evidence: Left hand side, page 4 = Allegro, ok; right hand side, page 5 = ?!I wish that will have the courtesy to replace even past the return window.

This book is missing pages - actually it has pages in it but with wrong instrument, more like for violin rather than cello. I cannot find Arioso (Bach) or Danse Rustique (Squire) either. If I could give 0 star

I would. Totally unusable.

Note to buyers: This 2015 revision of the piano accompaniment cannot be used with the 2003 cello book. They do not correlate. It is unusable for us. We will have to purchase the 2003 piano accompaniment in addition.

The piece in the table of contents- Danse Rustique is not in the book. The book was missing pages. Very unhappy!

Perfect!

Love it

Just what we needed.
