Gordon Morris Bakken is Professor of History at California State University, Fullerton and author of The Development of Law in Frontier California, The Development of Law on the Rocky Mountain Frontier, and Learning California History.

Being able to review this on-line was most helpful.I could determine if the book had information that I needed.The book is a very good source for explaining the development of law and land law in the western United States and shows that it is a separate body of law derived from but not the same as the common law and riparian law east of the 100th meridian.

Excellent reference to law of the west.
