Matthew Pinto is the founder and president of Ascension Press, a leading Catholic publisher. He has authored or co-authored more than a dozen Catholic resources, including A Guide to the Passion: 100 Questions About the Passion of the Christ, a New York Times religious best-seller. Matt regularly travels to different dioceses and conferences to share ideas for building programs that effectively reach adults and teens with the truth and beauty of the Catholic Faith. Katherine Andes, a catechist in the Diocese of Fresno, CA, is an award-winning writer and the mother of two great kids.

Well done; and a great idea.To make it perfect these people need to come up with an I-phone application that does this. The flash cards give you a couple of quotes and then has the other sources by chapter and verse where to find them in the Bible.. If this was on an I-phone you could have all the chapter and verses written below the question.. It would be so much better..

I got these to use in my 6th grade Religious Education Program class along with set 2 of the the Friendly Defenders cards. I left them out a couple of weeks ago and now the 9th graders and an adult RCIA class are also using them. They are a great way to introduce apologetics topics and give the students practice in locating and understanding Bible passages and Church teachings.

Catholic children and their parents can learn a lot about the Church and our traditions. These cards also provide very simple explanations to some of the most common questions (accusations) about Catholicism.

An excellent tools to teach the faith to the youth and teenagers ! I find these cards very useful for myself as well.Great for Sunday Schools, Communion Class and RCIA.

great for learning

These cards are an excellent tool for learning and defending your Catholic faith. We use them at mealtimes to quiz each other and we have lots of fun!

These are great for learning the answers to "why do we believe" in the tenets of our faith. Would be perfect for every Catholic and non-Catholic to read to understand the biblical basis of the Catholic faith. They also help illustrate how these are the beliefs of the early Church.

just what I wanted
