Tamara Baggett lives in West Jordan, Utah, with her husband, Chuck, and four young children. Tamara has taught public elementary school for seven years and preschool for six years. She graduated from Brigham Young University in elementary education.

I love this book! With 2 small children (1 and 2 years old), my husband and I had a hard time knowing what to do for family night. This book gives us great ideas, and the little way provided for choosing is genius and simple!

This is amazing. If you don't always have time for a long thought out family night then this book is for you. Song, scripture, story, done!

Has lessons that can be adapted for any age. I wanted it this for seniors, but i can modify for what I need.

When previewing and reading the description, it seemed like it would be geared toward little kids, but upon receiving, I found this to be for older children.

Really great for younger kids and when you don’t have a lot of time but still are trying to feel the spirit.

So far so good! Just starting putting the book to use! Love how it has what we should teach about each week, this just so happeed to be what i questioned most come FHE. ;)

Great ideas for family night!

So excited to start using it.
