Tim Green, for many years a star defensive end with the Atlanta Falcons, is a man of many talents.

He's the author of such gripping books for adults as the New York Times bestselling The Dark Side of the Game and American Outrage. Tim graduated covaledictorian from Syracuse University and was a first-round draft pick. He later earned his law degree with honors, and he has also worked as an NFL commentator for FOX Sports and NPR.His first book for young readers, Football Genius, inspired in part by his players and his own kids, became a New York Times bestseller and was followed by Football Hero, Football Champ, The Big Time, and Deep Zone. He drew on his experiences playing and coaching Little League for Rivals and Pinch Hit and two more New York Times bestsellers: Baseball Great and Best of the Best.Bestselling author Jon Scieszka called Tim Green's Unstoppable, a book about a boy's struggle with cancer that debuted at #2 on the New York Times bestseller list, "Absolutely heroic. And something every guy should read."Tim Green lives with his wife, Illyssa, and their five children in upstate New York.

I bought this for my Sunday School program’s Christmas party on the outside chance that it would interest one of my students. One of the 8th grade boys was surprised to see it and was recommending it very enthusiastically. I was told after the holidays that this is a great book and the student plans to get the others in the series. He also shared it with two other boys. You can’t beat that!

I ordered book for grandchildren to read while staying with me during summer and after school. I read most of the books myself. This one was very good. Good for the sports minded with little suspense to keep you reading.

Great read for my 13- yr. old grandson ball player.

Very good book very detailed

Great book, my son loved it!

This is very good book and I would recommend this book for everybody. I also play baseball and have an identical twin so this is awesome.

My 4th grader likes sports and he enjoyed this book. I guess it’s about a movie star and a baseball player changing places. It won an award.

my son likes these books
