Synopsis

Nelson Mandela, who courageously dealt with adversity and emerged a world leader, has been an inspirational role model for millions of people around the world, from students to presidents. After being imprisoned for 27 years, in 1994 he became South Africa’s first democratically-elected president and shared the Nobel Peace Prize. Mandela died in 2013, but his legacy lives on as a barrier-breaker and humanitarian. Learn all about his life, especially the challenges he faced and how he persevered, in this thoughtful biography.

BARBARA KRAMER began writing biographies for children and young adults after following the advice of another author who said, "Write what you like to read." She remembered how much she enjoyed biographies when she was a kid, especially stories about trailblazers such as Davy Crockett, Daniel Boone, and Elizabeth Blackwell and decided that’s what she wanted to write. Her subjects have included both historical figures and people in the news.

I love these books. I’m constantly looking for interesting nonfiction texts for my classroom. These are perfect for my third graders and they can not get enough of them. Kids are constantly coming up to me and telling me new facts that they have learned from the books in this series. Great for science, reading, social studies, history, vocabulary, etc. Highly recommended!

Great book, for my grandson. It was a good read for his age.

Excellent and appropriate for young readers.

Just the right level for my students.

This book is absolutely wonderful! As a South African living in the US, I really wanted to find a good selection of books relating to South Africa for my 6 year old daughter. This book does not disappoint! A++

I am always impressed with these National Geographic Kids picture book biographies. Each has interesting easy to follow text, lovely photographs, vocabulary builders, maps, a time-line, and a quiz about the covered material. The edition gives a glance into the life of Nobel Prize Winner and inspirational leader Nelson Mandela and his life before, during and after imprisonment.

Great man, good story

Great for my 6th graders project on Nelson Mandela. Great picutes too.
