Customer Reviews

Wow, That American Curl looks a lot like a Lynx. Now I want one of those!If you’re interested in getting a cat then be sure to pick up this book first and your selection will be so much easier. Learning about the different breeds and a bit of history on each breed made it very easy to find the right cat for our family. It’s also a really fascinating read if you love cats in general.

A definite must buy for cat lovers and breeders. Everything you need to know about the feline species is contained in this book. For the amount of content offered for the price, this book cant be beat. Author Brian Stephenson did a great job with this one. 5 Stars

I enjoyed reading this book and learning about the different cat breeds. This ebook will guide you in choosing out the right cat for you. It is particularly helpful to know about the possible health concerns of the pet and its personality.

Great book that covers all the important aspects of the cat breeds. Great for those trying to decide what cat is best for them or those who already have a particular type of cat and would like to understand it better. Highly reccomend.

This (big) book is excellent for those looking to buy for a new cat. Instead of searching around the web they can find all the breeds of cats in one place.It has a comprehensive presentation of each breed, a few pages for each. I really liked it... it is a good fit in my cat library.Russian Blue Lover

I am reading this book to learn about different cat breeds. It is a very good book and if you are a cat lover you would enjoy the book.

Excellent book for cat breeds and for all people who want to know what they look like. It is also an excellent we my book fort people to learn several different things about cats
