Customer Reviews

This handy guide clearly explains how to create illustrated materials using Canva. The book is well laid out with many screenshots. Easy to use and implement, it fulfills the promise of the title.

The author walks you through the basics with everything you need to know, while doing so in an engaging voice. It’s really short, but filled with links and step by step instructions. As someone already proficient with Canva and CreateSpace there isn’t a ton of new info, but even so, worth the read--especially with those measurements!

I like that author is guiding the reader by hand throughout the whole process of creating great cover design using canva. Well done.

If you feel like you’re losing at "Gotcha" on Canva and Create Space, this is the book for you.I have clients who consider themselves totally "untechy" and I appreciate the challenge of explaining even what appears to be the most obvious detail so that they get it and feel successful... and I’ve been in the position of the newbie who is missing that detail and can’t move forward. Sarah Lentz has taken care of all that for, so if you’ve been unable to get the results you wantÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â •or if you think the language choice you need is "Over 50," she's your new best friend!

What a great book! Ms. Lentz made a dream of mine a likely reality. I have always wanted to create a journal for grieving widows and now have the tools to do that! I am so excited. This book is full of easy to follow, clear instructions to use Canva and CreateSpace. I would have never tackled these on my own. Thank you Ms. Lentz!

I love this book. So concise and helpful. Lots of detail and clearly explained. I read it first from cover to cover and now I am going into my Canva account to play! Ms Lentz inspires and supports her reader with knowledge and enthusiasm.

Interesting and something that I may have a try for myself. I've used many journals over the years but being able to tailor one for my own exact needs definitely holds appeal!

I'm trying to create a workbook and got stuck. That's how I found Sarah Lentz's "Create stunning journals & workbooks using Canva & CreateSpace." Her book is a real lifesaver as I'm trying to navigate the workbook process, and the step-by-step instructions she provides are keeping me from giving up.
