Celebrating handcrafted cowboy boots--a multicolored confetti of leather, a tattoo for the soul.

Art of the Boot is a great cocktail table book. I'm really into cowboy boots and have seven pair. And, I think I need more...Anyway, this has very colorful pictures, interesting text on all of the boot manufacturers and is a good read. It's a great conversation starter for guests....I bought it used but it looks brand new. I paid $20 for used instead of much, much more for a new copy. I probably saved over half the cost over new...It's only new once right?

For those of us that hold the cowboy boot in high esteem this is a wonderful volume. Gorgeous photography of amazing art and craft and very entertaining text on everything concerning the field. I particularly enjoyed reading the profiles of the top bootmakers.

Made a super surprise birthday gift for my guy. He was totally blown away! He wanted to know where I found such an incredible book. My answer, "" of course!

Just as I thought it would be. Thanks

Full of good information

if you are a cowboy boot fanatic (or not), this is a great book. tyler beard was the preeminent boot connoisseur. numerous wonderful pictures of unique boots. and, great reference material.

I give this book a 4 out of 5 because I was hoping for a little more history on the boot and maybe a little more info on how the boot pertained to the old west. This book had a huge variety of photos and photos that were well taken, but they were mostly very colorful "fancy" boots. If you're looking for some funky looking boots, this is your book love the stories and the pictures. one can tell that Tyler Beard lived and breathed boots. all of us that love cowboy boots must thank Tyler for all his efforts to bring the Art of the Boot to life.
