Great story line and can be appreciated by dog owners. After all your pets are just "hairy kids who walk funny". Dianne gave good insight to dog showing world and how people feel about their pets. the storyline has several twists and character insights and will keep you guessing until the end. Like all Dianne's book, it's a pageturner and you don't want to put it down.I love all her series but Cedar Bay Cozy Mysteries were my introduction to Dianne and are my slight favorite. I highly recommend them all for good story lines, insight to human nature, mystery and love interests.

I really enjoy reading books by Dianne Harman. They are well written and not to violent. This book was about a dog kennel, and I love dogs. her books are mysteries but are very easy to follow. I enjoy reading about the couple, Kelly and Mike, on their new journey as husband and wife. Can't wait for more to come.

I really enjoyed this book. When the owner of a fancy dog kennel is murdered and all the dogs boarded there are released, Kelly gets involved because her dogs were among them. She finds her dogs safe but the owner Mary was one of her friends so she also wants to find who did it. In the end, the murderer was a surprise. I am sure you'll enjoy this one.

A dog kennel has an unexpected pregnancy with a champion dog, the owner of the kennel is murdered, and someone is following the heroine. A cozy mystery with a twist. I follow Dianne Harman and read all her books because the books just keep getting better. A great entertaining read.

A cozy mystery can be written with adult dialogue. This book sounds like a juvenile wrote it. I only kept reading this book because I'm a huge dog lover.

As usual, the Cedar Bay story was interesting and entertaining. This was a mystery that got Kelly's attention immediately. Didn't have most of the characters show up in this tale, but it was a quick read and satisfying effort.

This is the first time I've read Dianne Hartman, and I was pleasantly surprised. The characters are believable and the plot kept me guessing as there were at least four believable suspects. I've all ready purchased "The Blue Coyote" , and am looking forward to another good read.

I enjoyed this book very much. It kept you going right to the very end. The gang is like visiting old friends. I love going to Cedar Bay.
