Synopsis

Was Leonardo da Vinci a genius ... or was he, literally, ahead of his time? After finding a mysterious bracelet beside an ancient human skeleton in a sinkhole cave on the Nullarbor Plain in Australia, teen siblings Matt and Lissa Wellbourn, find themselves inadvertently transported back to 15th Century Florence, Italy. While desperately trying to work out what's going on, they get into strife with the locals, and the constabulary. Then they stumble into a treacherous assassination plot upon two brothers of the most powerful family in Florence - the Medicis. As they battle to find a way to return home, they begin to question the true origin of their new-found friend, Leonardo da Vinci, and are convinced he is hiding an incredible secret. But how will they get back to the 21st Century? The answer continues to evade them, and their situation becomes worse when they also face the possibility of spending years in a stinking, rat-infested dungeon ... or worse!

Although this novel is intended primarily for the young adult audience, it will appeal to all generations who enjoy the time travel genre. Even my Senior Citizen compadres. It is a very well-written and entertaining read. The key thread of questioning the origin of Da Vinci is well conceived and it is a treat to see how the author managed the concept. The brother and sister characters have been well developed and their interaction is entertaining. The young 21st Century alpha teenage male just can't help himself, getting into one awkward situation after another involving Da Vinci and the Medici's. I am a devoted hard SciFi and Fantasy reader and thoroughly enjoyed this read. I look forward to the next book in the series and recommend it to any generation.

What a wonderful adventure story, with real historical figures woven in for good measure. I would encourage Kerri McDonald to continue these characters in a series!

Leonardo da Vinci and Renaissance Italy come alive in this exciting, time-travel adventure story. It's a fun way for kids -- and all the rest of us!! -- to dive into a magical time in history. This should be on every teacher's reading list!

This is a terrific book; probably best described as an 'historical novella'. I am sure it will appeal to many age groups.
