I’ve been married for over 10 years and there is no affection, no matter what I try to do. I finally asked him to leave. I did one thing suggested in the book and for the last five days he has come over in the morning before he goes to work to kiss me and tell me to have a good day. He never does this, not even when he lived here. It’s progress. I don’t know if it will keep progressing but I’m willing to try.

Enjoyed reading this quick easy read which had many relevant ways to improve your marriage by treating your spouse in loving ways.

Awesome book! Easy read and very practical. I've been reading it over and over again.

Worth the read. Made me feel good to know I already do 60% of what is suggested in this book.

Inspiring. A great reminder of ways to show love and appreciation to your husband even when life gets in the way. Easy fast read.

My husband and I read a passage to each other every night before bed.

Great book

It's an interesting book
