Shortly after completing college, Mathew Anderson taught English in China for a year. He endeavored to explore another country in order to understand how other cultures viewed the world. This book is about his year traveling throughout Southeast Asia, starting with teaching in Shenzhen, China.

Excellent book I thought it might be about backpacking China, as that is the type of book I have been reading what a nice surprise...I recommend this to anyone interested in china

Very enjoyable as both an informational guide, as well as entertaining! I would highly recommend this to friends.

A thoroughly enjoyable book chronicling the successes and struggles of moving around the world for a year to teach in Shenzhen, China.
