Haruki Ueno is a Japanese manga creator best known for his series Phi-Brain Puzzle of God, which has received three popular anime adaptations that have been streamed for viewing around the world.

The Big Hero 6 manga is based off the hit movie Big Hero 6 and it should be pointed out there are a lot of differences between the movie and the manga.Without spoiling the storyline for you, the readers, here are some differences:the manga shows Hiro looking much younger than his fourteen years and is a lot less mature than his movie counterpart. He is very shy and tries to cover that shyness by being a brat.The storyline for volume one focuses more the relationship between Tadashi and Hiro, showing bits and pieces of their past and has extra chapter as to why Tadashi built Baymax.Callaghan appears to look much younger and more handsome in this manga than his movie counterpart.The characters display much more emotion and are shown to have more flaws than they had in the movie.All in all, volume one of Big Hero 6 is a great start for a great new series for both fans and newcomers alike!

A really good read. This manga is similar to the movie but has its own differences, twists and turns which makes it stand apart. Give it a shot!

If your a fan of the movie Big Hero 6 then this is for you!! the story here is a bit different from the movies and has a small special feature on how and why Tadashi decides to create Baymax,while Hiro here looks younger and is really stubborn which makes him cuter.i cried a bit while reading it even though im a teenager but im a huge fan of the movie,cant wait next book to come out which hopefully will be soon.

It’s definitely got some similarities with the movie but still completely it’s own independent story. I think it’s freaking amazing.

There were many things about the plot which were changed in the book that I though were stupid, created unnessicary plot holes, and made the characters less likeble.

Love this manga. It goes into more of the relationship between Hiro and Tadashi, also it is different compared to the movie. I can’t wait for volume 2 to be released. If you aren’t familiar with manga and are buying this for a child then be aware that it is bound backwards and reads from right to left. :)

Adorable alternate version of the Big Hero 6 story. More backstory of Hiro and Tadashi’s relationship growing up,and VERY different circumstances around Tadashi’s "death". Eager to read the next part.

I’m so happy that I bought this!!! It gives us a whole new look at Hiro and Tadashi’s world with great new plot twists!! 10/10 will recommend to anyone that lovesBig Hero 6!!! I’m currently dying for the next volume!!!!
