Shiramine is a manga author and artist best known for the Tales of Zestria manga.

A must-buy for any fan! If you’re suffering from post-Zestiria withdrawal and need more action from this series before you keel over and die, it’s hands-down the best adaptation of the game available. It boasts great art, slick and exciting action sequences, and little tweaks to keep you interested even when you think you know where things are going from playing the game. It’s far more balanced than the anime, and makes a great supplement to your game experience. I imagine it’d also a splendid addition to your balanced breakfast, if you wanted to eat it, which I didn’t.
