Book by Domosh, Mona, Neumann, Roderick P., Price, Patricia L.

This book along with the class, although I don’t care for the professor, not only has given me a much better mental image of the world but a strong descriptive outline of why everything is, the way it is, everywhere. Such a great subject (Human Geography), something I recommend anyone to read this book because it covers every area and is just for giving you an all around knowledge of different ethnicities, religions, countries, etc.

Great product, great shipping.

It’s usable.....but as promised it came within 2days, however, the condition was beyond rough. It looked as if a dog used it as a play toy. I’m content overall because i needed it in time and it came in time. I can still read it and complete my assignments needed for class. I’m just glad i didn’t buy it.

Once again I’m proven a nerd for reading my entire textbook, but with all my classes the professors have been following the book close with their lectures. It can’t be helped so I read every page.With this one it was very helpful if a bit dry in some places. The very detailed maps provided were great. It was a plus that it was my shortest textbook, giving all the information one needed in a concise package.

Superfast

good content

This book is very educational and easy to understand. Glad my professor used this one for my human geography class.

Speedy delivery for my college class! Not a full book as normal texts are.
