The essential, or basic.

Very good informative and concise. I followed everything to guide my trip. I did not have much time in the city and I think I saw the most relevant things

Munich was not originally on my list of places to see on my europe trip but after reading this book and putting some thought into fitting it into our budget we decided it was worth a shot . Boy am I happy we made that decision. Munich is a magical magical city well worth visiting that most tourists won't simply because it's not hyped up by media. I loved it and so did my best friend. We had an amazing experience and this book made it happen!

It provides good info for my trip planning.

Very helpful guide when I was in Munich. I recommend it to those going to Munich for the first time.
