Synopsis

This highly accessible, manageable program is user-friendly for instructors, teaching assistants, and students. Known for its succinct and precise grammar explanations, its presentation of high-frequency and practical vocabulary, and its overall flexibility, HOLA, AMIGOS! continues to maintain its appeal with instructors regardless of their preferred methodology. The program is designed to develop students' ability to communicate effectively in Spanish in a variety of situations as well as to strengthen cultural awareness and competence. It offers a full scope and sequence, yet is brief enough to be used effectively for a two-semester course. The eighth edition features an enhanced integration and presentation of culture and new and exciting technology components. All components are fully integrated with the flexibility to accommodate a range of scheduling factors, contact hours, course objectives, and ability levels.

Ana C. Jarvis, a native of Paraguay, was born in Asuncion and attended school in Buenos Aires, Argentina. She received her Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside, in 1973. Dr. Jarvis retired from Chandler-Gilbert Community College after a long and distinguished career. Prior to CGCC, she taught at Mesa Community College; the University of California, Riverside; San Bernardino Valley College; Brigham Young University; and Riverside City College. In addition to authoring numerous Spanish textbooks, she has published several short stories in Spanish. In 1988, she was chosen as "Faculty Member of the Year" at Chandler-Gilbert Community College.Raquel Lebredo was born in Camaguey, Cuba. She attended school in Havana and later enrolled at the University of Havana, where she received a Ph.D. in Education. She was subsequently employed as an elementary school principal, and taught literature and language at a preparatory school in Havana. She moved to the United States after living in Spain for a period of time. Dr. Lebredo was awarded a Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside. Since then, she has taught Spanish at Claremont Graduate School, Crafton Hills College, the University of Redlands, and California Baptist University, and has authored several Spanish textbooks. In 1985, she was chosen as "Faculty Member of the Year" by the student body at California Baptist University, and in 1991 she received a YWCA "Women of Achievement" award.Francisco Mena-Ayllon, a native of Madrid, Spain, received his Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside, in 1973. He has taught Spanish language and literature courses at the University of California, Riverside; Oberlin College; California State University, Chico; the University of Redlands; and Crafton Hills College. In addition to authoring numerous Spanish textbooks in the United States, he has published a book about Federico Garcia Lorca and several volumes of his own poetry. His poetry has been published in Spain, Latin America, and the United States. His work has also been included in several anthologies of contemporary Spanish poets, and he is listed in Quien es Quien en las Letras Espanolas, 1978 (Who’s Who in Spanish Letters), as an important contributor to contemporary Spanish literature. Professor Mena-Ayllon is now retired.

I purchased this book because college where I live uses this book so I thought it must be good. The distributors were great and timely.and even sent me reminders when the rental period was up, to send the book back or pay for another semester. The price includes return shipping.The book stinks! I could have bought this book used for well over $150 so I decided to rent it. I am so glad.it did and will not rent it again.I've purchased many other Spanish language books from , that are so very much better organized and have taught me so much more, at a much cheaper price and used with much more ease and enjoyment. In this book, actuall grammar lessons are way too short and the as to how to use them are too few. If I hadn't had learned some of the lessons before I would have been lost. It left me with unanswered questions which I had to look up in my other books. This book is made to be used in a classroom setting where students speak to each other, AND with the teacher there to help answers fill with information and examples, in where the book doesn't provide enough. I was told that the college teachers here, don't like it and "implement it" a lot. I rented it to learn mostly on my own, while friends took the class at the college. There are end of chapter quizzes with answers but throughout the book, where there are places to practice what one has learned, there are no answers ... to check ...so one will not know whether they have learned the lesson correctly.I studied French and Latin in high school and have taken a couple years of college German since then. I have never had a book so UN - USER FRIENDLY.. I started my spanish language learning with old books from around the house that had conversation with lessons. Then I went to and highly recommend going to Rocket Languages/Spanish, an on line and iphone/android program. It's rated higher than the well known and advertised program. has great books too...A few I have are workbooks. on Verbs, or Pronoun & Prepositions, grammar and easy Spanish readers are fun and encouraging as you start to learn the basic vocabulary, some with cds to listen to it as you read. You'll get your money and time's worth out of these many times over, I also find that a variety of sources gives a broader knowledge of vocabulary faster.

Book arrived in loose leaf when I meant to get hardback in addition to the binder holes all being broken so I couldn't put it in a binder... almost every single page was written in. Was too expensive for such poor quality

The book arrived in great condition,.

Great condition!!!

Scribbles everywhere

Was a good book for class.

Needed for school

easy read book
