Customer Reviews

AMC Nature Walks Guides offer an in-depth look at local nature on easy-to-moderate walks through nearby natural settings. Each guide includes detailed descriptions of more than forty walks, nature and environmental notes, photos and maps, driving directions, history, anecdotes, and useful suggestions from local experts. This title explores southern Vermont, offering an insider+s guide to the very best walking throughout the region. Veteran hiker Mark Mikolas has assembled a rich assortment of walks for all ages and abilities, having been an avid hiker for 40 years. He writes a hiking column for the Brattleboro, Vermont Reformer and guides a Sunday morning walking group there. His freelance articles have appeared in the Old Farmer’s Almanac, Country Journal, and Mother Earth News. (4 1/2’ x 6 1/2’, 384 pages)

Don’t let my "3-star" rating fool you, this is an excellent book. But don’t bother if you plan to hike the Deerfield Valley - there is really only two (maybe three) routes in what is known as southern Vermont’s hikers’ paradise.But if you plan on hiking around the Connecticut River Valley, this guide may be just the thing for you. It includes detailed information on flora, fauna, and even some historical and archeological information. Well worth the price, no matter where you plan to hike.
