Synopsis

The natural splendor, historic cities, and warmhearted people of North Carolina come alive in this outstanding collection of color photographs. With the turn of a page, you can feel the tension as you witness a Civil War reenactment. You can smell the sea breeze as you stroll the beach at Cape Hatteras. You can hear the old-time fiddlers as they entertain crowds at a folk festival. And you can glimpse the vivid hues of autumn foliage as you drive the Blue Ridge Parkway. The photographs are complemented by the words and wisdom of perspective North Carolinians.

Customer Reviews

This photographic portfolio of North Carolina emphasizes the natural beauty of the state, with breathtaking images of everything from the Blue Ridge Mountains to the sandy Atlantic beaches. Some images of the cities are also included. The images were carefully selected from over twenty different photographers. Most of the images were shot on large format film (4 x 6) resulting in a high level of resolution in the printed reproductions. This is one of the best books of its kind - and I have purchased quite a few.
